

News Media Development in Africa: State of the Art

International Academic Workshop - October 22, 2015

University of Neuchâtel – Salle D63, Bâtiment principal, Av. du 1er-mars 26

Preliminary Program

8:30 – 10:00 Session “Best practices to address the challenges of media sustainability in Africa”

- Challenges of Media Sustainability in Nigeria – Tokunbo Ojo, York University in Toronto, Canada
- “The why and how?” Media success and failure in Africa: the case of East African Media – Tedla D. Tekle, Trinity College, Ireland
- Building blocks of media success: Implications for media development and sustainability in Africa – Christoph Sommer, Bjørn von Rimscha, Marcel Verhoeven, Isabelle Krebs, and Gabriele Siegert, University of Zurich

10:00 – 10:30 Coffee break

10:30 – 12:00 Session “Impact of new technologies on news media innovation and sustainability in Africa”

- The African media landscape at the crossroad for digital transition – Cinzia Dal Zotto and Patrizia Spina, University of Neuchâtel
- New media technologies, changing topography of media practices and the challenges of sustainable media innovation in Nigeria – Nicholas Iwokwagh, Federal University of Technology, Nigeria
- ‘Digital Storytelling’ unplugged: Creating a sustainable Digital Storytelling experience with existing media production and distribution resources – Silke Hassreiter, Breda University of Applied Sciences, The Netherlands

12:00 – 13:00 Lunch

13:00 – 15:00 Session “Sustainability oriented news media business models and management practices in African countries”

- An emerging quasi community-commercial television business model in South Africa – Johanna Mavhungu, Rhodes University, South Africa
- Exploring an Afrocentric Media Business Model: the Case of Ugandan Local Language Media – William Tayebwa, Makerere University, Uganda
- The Dilemma of Community Participation and Sustainability: A case study of ATL FM Campus Radio in Ghana – Michael Yao Wodui Serwornoo, Technische Universität Dortmund, Germany
- Broadcast Management in Nigeria: The Systems Approach as an Imperative – Tonnie Iredia, Nasarawa State University, Nigeria

15:00 – 15:30 Coffee break

15:30 – 17:00 Session “Media systems sustainability challenges in African countries”

- Developing sustainable African news media: A collaborative framework to confront the “brown envelope syndrome” – Peter Gade & Emmanuel-Lugard Nduka, University of Oklahoma, USA
- Media Systems and Markets Dynamics in the African Countries: The case of Angola, Mozambique, Cape Verde, Guinea Bissau, San Tome and Principe – Paulo Faustino & Dário Muhamudo, Porto University, Portugal
- Media Development, DAC and China: Different Approaches, Same Public Diplomacy – Valerie Cooper, Baptist University, Hong Kong

17:00 – 18:00 Session “Local media development and sustainability in Africa”

- The need and the opportunities for sustainability – The case of local radio stations in Tanzania – Christoph Spurk & Filip Dingerkus, Zurich University of Applied Sciences
- Toward the development and sustainability of indigenous language media in Africa – Abiodun Salawu, North-West University, South Africa

